WHICH CANDIDATES FOR MONTANA SUPREME COURT DO YOU TRUST TO PROTECT ABORTION ACCESS?

FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

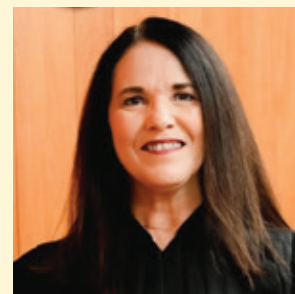

JUDGE JERRY LYNCH attended the University of Montana Law School and went on to become Montana's longest-serving federal magistrate judge. Lynch has sat on the state Board of Public Education and Board of Environmental Review. He has been endorsed by six former state supreme court justices and a number of labor unions and groups that support access to public lands.

CORY SWANSON attended the University of Montana Law School and went on to hold political office as Deputy Attorney General. He has served as Broadwater County Attorney since 2014, and he is a pastor and a member of the National Guard. He has been endorsed by seven county sheriffs.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE

JUDGE KATHERINE BIDEGARAY attended the University of Montana Law School. Afterward, Bidegaray worked in the office of the Montana State Auditor and has served as a District Court Judge in eastern Montana since 2003. She has been endorsed by a number of labor unions and groups that support access to public lands.

JUDGE DAN WILSON attended law school at the University of Minnesota. Wilson later returned to Montana to work as a County Attorney in Great Falls and has served as a District Court Judge in Flathead since 2017. He has been endorsed by a former state supreme court justice and three former district court judges.
